Have fun in the air and on land with real gas-powered racers

Quiet, easy-flying PT-19 Trainer

Every airplane pilot flies a trainer before he takes on the bigger planes. The PT-19 Trainer by Cox is just such a plane. It's the perfect plane for a beginner to use in learning control-line flying, or an advanced pilot to practice stunt flying. The QZ (Quiet Zone) muffler on the Cox .049 gas engine cuts the noise down to a whisper-like hum and permits the plane to be flown anywhere, in areas where the noise won't disturb anyone. The muffler may easily be opened to release the full roar. Damage from crash landings is forgotten with the PT-19. Its rubber-band assembly "pops" apart and back together in seconds.

The PT-19 Trainer features a spring starter, nylon prop with vinyl spinner, hand painted pilots, and control handle with lines. Wingspan is a full 22 1/2 in.; fuselage is 13 1/2 in. long. Finish is in bright red and white. See right for complete starting kit for any gas-powered model. Order today and "Charge It!"

The Live-Action Fleet comes on strong in 1967 with features geared to sales appeal and sturdiness. Bodies, chassis and cabs are constructed of heavy-gauge steel. Details that add realism include chrome-plated headlights, grilles and wraparound bumpers; transparent wraparound windshields and many interiors with seats and steering wheels. Exclusive silent-glide wheels with self-lubricating bearings have non-mar white-wall tires and nickel-plated hubcaps. Large trailers have turbine cabs, real fifth wheels and dual tandem rear wheels. All models have sturdy see-thru packages and carry the Structo warranty of quality.

NEW! Timber Toter. As massive and strong as it looks. Features die-cast trailer that hauls six huge wood logs anchored realistically by scaled chains that lock. Turbine cab. Tandem dual rear wheels.

NEW! Sanitation Truck. Lever-operated dumping. When bucket is raised, top gate opens automatically. Sturdily constructed of heavy-gauge steel. Tandem rear wheels. Detailed interior.

Turbine Cab. Designed to be realistic, the turbine cab has a wraparound windshield that gives good view of accurately scaled, true-to-life interior.

Hydraulic Cylinder. On the Dump and Utility trucks, a hydraulic cylinder automatically rises as lever is depressed. The cylinder liquid is non-toxic and non-staining.

NEW! Hydraulic Dump Truck. An all-time favorite now with ten wheels and turbine cab. As lever is released, body moves into dump position, tailgate opens automatically. Simulated saddle tanks. Tandem dual rear wheels.

Silent-glide Wheels. Wheels have self-lubricating patented* bearings that protect axle and chassis from wear. Typical of Structo's concern with durability.

*U.S. Patent No. 3302251
Canada Patented 1966

Realistic Fifth Wheel. Large tractor trailers have a coupling wheel that works and looks like the fifth wheel on real trucks.

NEW! Snorkel Utility Truck. Snorkel rises hydraulically, has six positions, swivels on base. Plated stabilizer jacks retract into body. Simulated snorkel motor. Turbine cab. Simulated dome light and extra utility ladder.

Detailed Scale Animals. Many trucks include accurately detailed animals that are scaled to the size of the toys for added sales appeal and realism.

See-Thru Package. Protects your merchandise while adding sales appeal. Attractively spotlights key sales features. Easily stacked for mass displays. Each unit a self-contained display.

Prince Eugene*

SOLID STERLING SILVER

An authentic interpretation of the late 17th and early 18th century French Renaissance. A fashion created for the lavish use of Kings LOUIS XIII and LOUIS XIV and in high favor today as an ultimate in decorative beauty. PRINCE EUGENE, for whom this exquisite pattern was named, was born in Paris in 1663, and spent much time in lovely Vienna, then the seat of continental culture. When Vienna was threatened by the Turks, it was PRINCE EUGENE of Savoy who was its defender, and his successes earned for him the everlasting gratitude of the people. PRINCE EUGENE is a heavy weight, complete open stock pattern furnished in beautiful solid Butler finish. All Blades are Mirror-Finish Stainless Steel. Illustrated: Luncheon Knife and Fork, Teaspoon and Salad Fork—actual size.

*Chateau Rose

SOLID STERLING SILVER

The romantic beauty of yesterday becomes the fashion of today. The revival of elegance in home decoration reaches back to the Regency and Louis XIV' eras, with a touch of Victorian to add zest to the ensemble. "Chateau Rose" is a happy blending of the traditional beauty of these time-favored motifs. As they have lived in the past . . . "Chateau Rose" will live in the future, to become one of your cherished heirlooms of tomorrow. Substantial in weight throughout.

Its beautiful highlights are softened to a silvery lustre by its smooth butler finish.

French Scroll

SOLID STERLING SILVER

A flourishing prelude to the styles of tomorrow

The fantasy of scrolls from the LOUIS XV and LOUIS XVI periods...richly and delicately moulded into a series of sweeping graceful curves, unbroken, yet carved to reflect beautifully the scintillating highlights created by its soft undulating surfaces...gives life to this lovely pattern.

FRENCH SCROLL is a style developed in keeping with the present-day demand for modernized sterling patterns from the classical period that prevailed during the reign of the Kings LOUIS, in the years 1700 to 1800. Soft butler finish.

Ideal Has Mobile Toy History

NEW YORK—A 12-foot display covering some 300 years of toy history, and including a special section devoted to new Ideal lines introduced at the Toy Fair, will be seen in 40 shopping centers, primarily on the East Coast, this year, and through June, 1968.

Sponsored by American Heritage Magazine, the American

Showcase Exhibition uses eight feet of the 12-foot exhibit to cover industry history. The remaining four feet shows such contemporary Ideal items as Super City, Captain Action, Tubsy and Giggles (both new dolls), Motorific trucks, cars and tracks, and three games, Careful, Snakes Alive and Cold Feet.

The American Showcase includes a total of 23 exhibits, each built around a major U. S. industry.

World Wide Ads Stress Hand Crafted Quality

CHICAGO—A national ad campaign stressing handcraftsmanship is being undertaken by World-Wide Enterprises, here.

Theme of the campaign is "World-Wide Miniatures Hand Crafted So Perfectly You'd Think Santa Made Them Himself."

Full-page color ads showing nine World-Wide miniature lite sets made in Italy, Japan and the U.S., have been scheduled in Life, Look, McCall's, Parade, This Week and Reader's Digest.

Newspaper ads with the same theme will begin in major markets on Dec. 1.

Books for Infants

TIPP CITY, OHIO—A new toy—Play Pen Book—printed on foam-filled vinyl, has been developed for young children by Dolly Toy Co., here.

The books are printed on white vinyl sheeting in bright colors. Each book is soft and squeezable and may be taken into a bathtub or pool, and cleaned instantly with a damp cloth.

Promotion of Dr. Dolittle Film To Cost More Than $9 Million

NEW YORK—The most ambitious consumer product merchandising campaign ever executed for a film is being conducted for "Doctor Dolittle," according to 20th Century-Fox Film Corp.

Hundreds of Dolittle products, with a retail value of $100 million, have been licensed to U.S. manufacturers of toys, games, dolls, books and other categories.

A huge promotional drive is planned by the film corporation, and more than $9 million has been budgeted to advertise the products, 20th estimated.

Upcoming promotional events include the lead float in Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade, and a float in the Orange Bowl Parade.

Colorforms Aims Soft Sell Commercial

NORWOOD, N.J.—The soft sell—a new look in TV toy commercials?

Colorforms, here, is planning a nationwide TV campaign this fall for its new Miss Nurse package. The commercial, made by Fladell, Winston, Pennette, through Televideo Productions, avoids use of animation, trick photography, loud voices, blaring music—it does "everything the traditional toy commercial does not," the company said.

The commercial used an actual doctor's office and a real doctor examining a four-year-old girl. The cameras were hidden and the situation was real, as was the dialogue: "When he puts that stick in my mouth, it makes me want to throw up."

The commercial will be shown

This unhappy pout is one reaction of youngster in doctor's office, the scene of Colorforms new Miss Nurse commercial

"Red" Gets Tour

Taking a tour through the Pace Sporting Goods Mfg. Co. in Amsterdam, N.Y., is Ben "Red" Auerbach (center), general manager of the Boston Celtics. Escorting him through the plant where the official "Red" Auerbach Boston Celtic basketballs and equipment are made are Harold Frankel (left), national sales manager, and E. A. Robinson, president.

in 20 key nationwide markets on leading children's shows, and in New York, it will run in 40 spots per week for seven weeks on several shows.

Ernest Fladell, agency president, said use of the soft sell technique in a Colorforms commercial last year led the client to increase this year's ad budget by more than 20%.

Coleco Industries Enters Pool, Billiard Table Field

HARTFORD, CONN.—Expansion of its family recreational product line is being undertaken by Coleco Industries, Inc., here. The firm has decided to enter the pocket billiard and pool table field.

Leonard E. Greenberg, president, said the firm has begun to market a professionally-styled table selling in the $300 retail price range.

Next year, Coleco will make a broad line of tables, Greenberg said.

Conforming Matrix Introduces Machine, Plans New Facility

TOLEDO—A new machine for selective spray coating has been introduced by Conforming Matrix Corp. The electrically-operated turntable machine can produce 400 to 1200 pieces per hour, depending on size of part and other factors.

Overall measurements of the new Model 4-SW are 98" high by 60" wide by 90" long.

The company also announced beginning of construction of an addition for housing the manufacture of electroform molds for rotational and slush molding for the plastic industry.

H. E. MacArthur, president, said the addition will give the firm a total of 27,000 square feet of manufacturing floor space. The new construction is expected to be completed in January.

Monopoly Goes to War

TEL AVIV—During the Israeli-Arab "Six Day War," Monopoly was played in the trenches facing Syria.

"It was great fun until a phosphorous shell directed by an enemy artillery officer landed nearby," said Eiran Harris, of Montreal, who was in Israel during the conflict. "The flames caused complete or partial destruction of several title deed cards and some play money. A corner of the board was singed."

"It was obviously a Russian-made shell," Harris said, "because nobody was hurt."

Remco Promotion

HARRISON, N.J.—A massive TV merchandise giveaway program has been announced by Remco Industries, Inc. in 75 top markets.

ICC Supports T M A, Suspends Rate Rise

WASHINGTON—The Interstate Commerce Commission has upheld a request by the Toy Manufacturers of America to suspend a proposed rate hike on dolls, stuffed animals and stuffed toys.

The ICC, for the third time in a row, suspended a Southern Motor Carriers Rate Conference proposal to put a scale of multiple ratings based on weight density into effect on the cited items.

Due to the suspension order, which was at the request of the TMA, class 150, regardless of weight density, will continue to prevail.

Geometry Book Inspires New Wiff 'N Proof Game

NEW HAVEN, CONN.—A solitaire puzzle game newly developed by Wiff 'N Proof is based on a geometry textbook.

"Configurations," a series of progressively difficult geometric puzzle patterns, was inspired by "The Geometry of Incidence" by Harold L. Dorwart, Seabury Professor and mathematics department chairman at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

Dorwart helped develop the game.

Twister in Kodak Spot

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.—Twister, Milton Bradley's "stocking-feet" game, is being featured in a TV commercial just made by Eastman Kodak for its Instamatic cameras.

The commercial is being aired on "Walt Disney Presents" and "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea."

E. S. Lowe Advises Gov. Rockefeller on Lottery

NEW YORK—Governor Nelson Rockefeller recently held an informal meeting with Edwin S. Lowe, 52-year-old president of E. S. Lowe Co., here, to ask for advice on how to pick up the sales of the slumping New York state lottery, it was reported by the New York Times.

Lowe, who put home bingo games on the market in 1935, told Rockefeller that the advertising campaign being conducted to promote the lottery is unsuccessful because it stresses the wrong appeal.

The campaign emphasizes aid to education, since all lottery profits are to go to school aid.

The initial sales figures in the first month of lottery operation showed only about 6.5 million tickets sold, about 21% of the 30 million the state had expected to sell.

"My main point to the Govern-nor," Lowe told the Times, "was that the average working man or woman is not concerned with buying a lottery ticket for the purpose of helping education. Their primary concern is their hope to hit it rich and quick. That's why they buy sweepstakes tickets."

Lowe said the lottery ad campaign should therefore stress the chance to get rich quick. He also suggested more outlets for sale of tickets

Five other leases were being negotiated as T&N went to press. There have been no cancellations.

A spot check of AMF, Blazon, DeLuxe Topper, Mattel and Pressman showed that all firms intend to have their Two Penn Plaza offices and showrooms open in time for the 1968 Toy Fair.

"We'll be ready if the building is ready," said A. J. Frank, of Mattel.

TMA Sales Parley Set September 7

Friday's program will get under way at 9:30 a.m. with a talk by Robert L. Steiner, Kenner Products Co. on "The Distribution Function in the Toy Industry."

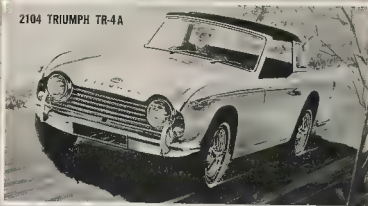

Following coffee break, Saul Robbins, Remco Industries, Inc., will deliver "Exploding the Marketing Myths."

Following buzz sessions, lunch and another question-and-answer period, Min Horowitz, president of the TMA, will close the seminar with a discussion of "The View From Here."

Building a better box

Package designer Don Rouse discusses the elements of good toy packaging. He stresses the need for functional integration between the toy and its box and analyzes the various factors that can make a package a vital selling tool on the retailer's shelf. Rouse also predicts some new directions for toy packaging.

Chaos in toy retailing

Designer Alan Berni deplores the confusion evident in many toy departments—and lays much of the blame on both manufacturers and retailers who have failed to pay enough attention to the toy package. Berni gives some concrete suggestions on how better packaging by the manufacturer, and better use of available packaging by the retailer, can improve the situation.

Goldberger Accessory Concept Brings Award, Record Sales

Two items in Goldberger Doll's new "Dolls-Plus" series are Susan and Her Stroller, and Bubble Bath Baby.

NEW YORK—Goldberger Doll Co., here, manufacturer of EeGee products, has announced record sales on its new series "Dolls-Plus." The series is a new concept in selling dolls and accessories, with emphasis on easily recognizable play value in a contemporary style.

"In the past most doll manufacturers, in trying to get the greatest value for the dollar, have made the doll the primary emphasis," says Seymour Goldberger, a company official. "At Goldberger we feel that all ingredients are of equal importance. First we select a top doll. Second, we create the 'plus' accessory. . . . producing a top doll plus a top accessory."

The company, which has just observed its 50th anniversary, recently received the 1967 Silver Prize Packaging Award by Variety Department Store Merchandiser. Commenting on the award Goldberger said, "We feel it has been important to create a package which equally features the doll and the 'plus' accessory."

The new series attempts to combine play value with a fun look, said Mel Rosenblum, vice president, marketing,

The packaging designed for the three dolls and accessories: Carrie and her 3 in 1 infant seat, Susan and her Stroller and Baby Bubble Bath, all display the doll in her accessory thereby showing the function of the accessory as well as the doll.

Whitman Introduces 9 New Peepul Pals Units at 1967 Toy Show

Nine new play units called Peepul Pals are being shown at Toy Fair for 1967 by the Whitman Publishing Company, Racine, Wisc., according to James B. Lyle, president.

The storybook title heading each unit is Little Red Riding Hood, Goldilocks, Cinderella, Nina Nurse, Sally Stewardess, Brenda Bride, Betty Ballerina, Rock-A-Bye Baby and Mother Goose.

Each of the units has a secret friend tie-in finger puppet that comes along with it. Secret friends are Walter Von Wolf for Little Red Riding Hood; Baby Bear for Goldilocks; Prince Charming for Cinderella; Granny for Rock-A-Bye Baby; Gabby Gander for Mother Goose; Doctor Dan for Nina Nurse; Peter Pilot for Sally Stewardess; Gary Groom for Brenda Bride and Mr. Twinkdotes for Betty Ballerina.

A Peepul Pals play unit consists of a styrene plastic doll house, 8½" high by 7" wide, which contains other items, such as a bendable, cloth-covered doll 6" tall; a 24-page, hard cover storybook, 5½" by 4½"; a trunk containing the secret friend finger puppet, a playstand, and a plastic purse or bag, measuring 1½" by 1". In the Rock-A-Bye Baby model, the doll will have a baby crib, rather than a purse or bag.

Each Peepul Pals doll house includes a carrying handle designed to fit flush with the roof line in a lowered position, and a four-sided board weight insert depicting inside and outside of the house on respective sides. A different house design is included with each model. The doll can be snapped into place in the house for carrying.

Peepul Pals is being marketed through Western's recently-formed Consumer Products Division.

"I'm comparison shopping this year," states the young lady in her mid-twenties, "but only for price, not value. Last year, I just went to a local store and bought. But I can't do that now, I have too many gifts to give. If the prices get any higher next year, then I'll give the same number of toys, but I'll just have to cut the amount of money I spend on each one."

WHICH WAY THE RETAILER?

What does all this mean? Obviously, there are bugs in toy retailing and in toy manufacturing. But, perhaps, the biggest bug is in consumer education. Obviously, consumers are not briefed on the real value of the toys they purchase. For example, it is an undeniable fact that TV toys sell, and have for many years, despite all consumer complaints to the contrary. Are consumers acquainted with the fact that many such

"They don't educate. They don't teach my kid anything. They don't even amuse him for any length of time."

items are extremely moderate in price? Are they aware of what goes into the design and manufacture of the more expensive items? In both cases, the answer is a resounding "no!"

The answer is—educate them. But who's to do it, and how? How do you "bell the cat?"

Educational toys are another example. Consumers talk about these items, but do they actually know what they are? Mothers want items that will occupy the child's attention, primarily. But these are not necessarily educational toys. The latter actually teach the child something. But a toy that ties up the child's attention, such as a game or a puzzle, does not necessarily instruct him.

Teaching the consumer is, most practically, the province of the retailer as he is the person most directly, and most frequently, in touch with her. He can teach through a variety of steps which involve normal use of his departmental functions. And that's the purpose of this survey—showing the retailer how he can capitalize on consumer criticisms—and how he can educate his customers.

Selling the parent, not the child, can be done through departmental signing stressing the virtues of scattered cases where OUIJA BOARDS displayed some power.

STUFFED TOYS were down to normal seasonal lows except with one chain that reported a sudden "big action" on all small plush.

A Newark, N.J., retailer reported a best seller with CONSOLIDATED MANUFACTURING CO.'S PLASTIC SNAKES.

Wheel goods varied sharply with some reports of "good sales" for WAGONS and WHEELBARROWS. Most agreed there was little volume with BICYCLES in any price range.

CONSTRUCTION TOYS registered as being fairly quiet.

Hobbies slowed down as warm weather took over. Retailers and wholesalers claimed little action in this category except with a few PLASTIC KITS, besides the suprising STAR TREK. GAS PLANES and FUEL kept pace with the warmer weather and came in as hotter items.

In all cases RACING SETS were very quiet through the area.

PAINT-BY-NUMBER took a strong upsurge with the AVALON PAINT ON WOOD emerging as a big star. One hobby wholesaler said, "It just had to move—the finished results are what sells this set. When they see what can be accomplished, we have a sale."

Market conditions are normal for this season. Except for a few shortages, things are up to par. The shortages in some areas involve LITTLE KID-LES and LUCKY LOCKET. One interesting shortage for this time of year reported by a 16-unit chain was the EAGLE RUBBER FOOTBALL which was quite popular across the counter until the stock ran out. There was no explanation for this out-of-season demand.

Ohio Art Shows Variety of 1967 Play Items

The Ohio Art Company, Bryan, Ohio, is currently offering a Hippy Hop Kangaroo Game and a Mystery Pistol Target-master Tournament Range as part of its line for 1967.

The kangaroo game includes a mechanical kangaroo figure which a player can use to flip dice from its pouch by pressing down on its tail, an 18" diameter lithographed metal board, plastic storage drawers and 80 playing parts.

The target game, 31" long by 9" high by 5" wide, includes a 9" plastic gun and removable targets.

Other new games in the line include a Musical Work Bench with a dual tone speaker; a Musical Typewriter that shows five illustrated rollers that can start and stop separately; a Ring-Bac Gun that shoots out a plastic ring with a reverse spinning action that propels the ring back to the player; and an Action Drum that has metal chain connectors that make a boy and a girl figure jiggle.

Paper Novelty Redesigns Its Tinsel Garland Packages

The Paper Novelty Mfg. Company, Stamford, Conn., has introduced a new concept in the packaging of their 1967 tinsel garlands. The entire line of garland boxes for the 1967 season has been redesigned, employing the use of "photo-packs in living color."

The packages feature family scenes, see illustration, on each box and the three different garland sizes are illustrated with combinations of father-daughter (extra-wide garlands), mother-son (traditional-width garlands), and a three-year-old girl (twist garlands).

The backs of Paper Novelty's garland packages have also been redesigned. Three basic scenes are illustrated on each: a tree branch decorated with icicles, the company's main product line; a tree laden with garlands and packages decorated and tied with tinsel garlands; and honeycomb foil Christmas balls.

The change in design was made, according to Frederick I. Wershaw, general sales manager, to increase eye appeal and provide a package with which the shopper will readily identify. Available in drug, variety and chain stores, the retail price of garlands ranges from 59¢ to $3.95 per package.

Royalty Designs of Florida, Inc., recently introduced a new item to their line of bicycle handle bar grips.

Brokers Hear Mattel Plans

HAWTHORNE, CALIF. — Plans for growth and expansion are being formulated at Mattel, Inc., here, Ruth Handler, president, recently told a meeting of the New York Society of Security Analysts.

"With completion of a new corporate structure through the recent appointment of a third executive vice president," she said, "the company is now implementing a planned program of expansion both within and outside the toy industry."

Seymour Rosenberg was recently named vice president, finance and administration.

Mattel believes it can continue to grow at a faster rate than the industry in segments where it presently operates, she told the meeting. Mattel accounts for about 9% of sales of the U.S. toy market.

"Moreover, the company intends to use existing and newly-acquired capabilities to enter new segments of the industry," Mrs. Handler said.

Lauds Sales Rep Story

To the Editor:

We must offer immediate gratitude on the splendid item appearing in the October issue of TOYS & NOVELTIES on the subject of sales representatives and their problems. Your item beginning on page 37 under the caption "The Things That Bug Us" is put together in a very splendid manner and we are most happy to see that at last a trade publication is backing the representatives instead of always talking about the manufacturers.

We of the Riemann, Seabrey Company are deeply appreciative for the material that has appeared in the October issue of your publication.

Criticises Trends Column

To the Editor:

Every month I look forward to reading TOYS & NOVELTIES, the marketing trends column, and every month you seem to play up the major toy items: "Matchbox," etc., etc.

As one of the leading wholesalers of toy and hobby merchandise on the East Coast, we have found that Military Miniatures by Associated Hobby Manufacturers have been one of the best selling items that our company has ever had. In talking with people from AHM, they advise me that they have sold over twenty-six million pieces of these miniatures. I am sure this is a record in both the toy and hobby industry. How many items can you think of that over more than twenty-six million have been sold? Miniatures, you know, are taking a stronger part in both the toy and hobby industry this year. Almost every department, discount and chain store, etc., will have a miniature department this year.

Another leading item which we have found is the "S" Series Figures by Airfix, which at 50¢ for the past several years have been fantastic movers.

Atlanta Market Dates Set

ATLANTA—The Fourth Annual Spring and Summer Toy Show sponsored by the Southeastern Toy Travelers Association, will take over 30,000 square feet of the Atlanta Merchandise Mart for the week-end of Oct. 27-29.

Approximately 350 buyers from throughout the Southeast are expected to attend the three-day show which is being expanded this year. New displays of juvenile furniture, variety merchandise, Easter goods and drug and sundry items will be shown along with the toys, novelties and imports usually associated with the show.

Dime Display

Ten-cent items were played up in this display on the end counter leading into the toy department of the Preston Royal T. G. & Y. Store, Dallas.

Dallas Enthusiasm Up

DALLAS—Registration hit new highs at the Market Center Gift & Jewelry Show held here Sept. 3-8, while toy jobbers holding concurrent shows also reported good attendance.

Registered buyers topped the 10,000 mark for the first time ever at any Dallas Market Center show, reported Bill Cooper, vice president and general manager of the Dallas Market Center.

Jobbers were reporting strong buying at their private shows.

"Buyers were placing nice orders, making the September show our best yet," said Sam Adkins, toy buyer for Cullum & Boren.

Wet weather during the entire week failed to dampen buyers' spirits. In fact, many reps felt the rain, which broke a drought, made buyers more optimistic. Buyers were also beginning to be concerned over possible shortages, they said.

Over 300 lines will be featured.

"We're proud of our progress over the past four years, and exhibitors are enthusiastic about the expanded format," said Ed Conrad, show producer. "With the annual increase in buyer attendance, many of whom select the lines for other departments, we are forced to include a wider variety of display than ever before. This new expansion represents a healthy and substantial growth, and buyers are approving the change."

Conrad noted that representatives of variety retail outlets, drug outlets, mass merchandisers, toy stores and home furnishings outlets will be on hand for the show.

Buyers from as far north as Canada attended the 1966 show. All southeastern states were represented with registrations from North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

Dallas Trade Mart Slates Expansion

DALLAS—An expansion program has been announced for the Dallas Trade Mart and Apparel Mart. Beginning immediately, nearly a quarter-million square feet will be added in the Dallas Market Center.

The program, which is expected to be completed by August, 1968, includes 58,000 square feet for the Trade Mart, 155,552 for the Apparel Mart, and a 20,000-square-foot separate warehouse for light storage behind the Trade Mart.

Toy showrooms on the second floor of the Trade Mart possibly may be moved to the first floor to keep all toy firms together, but plans have not yet been finalized.

"Manufacturers of apparel, furniture, housewares, toys and accessories have literally demanded that we provide more space," Market officials said, "to further accommodate the ever-growing number of store buyers attending our 20 major markets."

T. G. & Y. Stores Reorganize

OKLAHOMA CITY—T. G. & Y. stores has announced a reorganization of its buying department. Bob Ray, formerly toy buyer, has been appointed group buyer over toys, hobbies and sporting goods.

Jim Carel has been named assistant buyer in toys and Tim Hogle as assistant buyer in hobbies and sporting goods.

Structo Shows Turbine Cab Design for 1967

A snorkel fire truck which "operates hydraulically, propelling a 20-foot stream of water with the aid of a hose adaptor" is one of a number of new items being shown for 1967 by the Structo Division, King-Seely Thermos Company, according to Hy Schiff, vice-president-sales.

This addition to Structo's Pow-r-r-r fleet features a "turbine" cab with large, wrap-around windshields. The steel fire truck has a basket swivel and a simulated dome light along with a batteryless sound attachment that simulates an engine motor in action.

Another new wheeled item is an automobile transporter showing open-sided guder construction, an adjustable loading ramp, and wheels with nickel-plated hub-caps.

The company is also showing an hydraulic sanitation truck and a tractor trailer truck with 375 cubic inches of space for cargo in the trailer section as well as adjustable wheels. Its back doors swing open, and a spare wheel is shown on the cab's coupling.

The firm has incorporated the new "turbine" cab styling in most of its larger trucks.

Structo's Kompak line includes a mobile mercy-go-round that rotates and rings a bell as the truck is moved.

This truck shows revolving hand-painted animal figures that revolve around a center pole. Another item in this line is the Kenya Karryall, a truck with cages whose doors can be opened to take out or put in plastic, wild animal figures. The cages are removable so that the truck can also be used as a flatbed hauler. A lever-operated sanitation truck is also reported to be part of this line.

Structo plans ads in Life, Look, the Reader's Digest and the Saturday Evening Post, Mr. Schiff concluded.

Low to Show New Games at Toy Fair

A number of new games will be shown by the E. S. Lowe Company at Toy Fair, according to Bernard Alpher, marketing director. These games include three games from Europe, licensed from Edition Carlit, Zurich, as noted, Count Down, a "dramatization of rocket building and moon exploration" retailing for about $7; Traffic, a game stressing road safety for about $6 and Wild Life, an animal-capturing game set for about $7. Two other new Lowe items are Home Stretch, a harness racing game at about $4, and Nile, an "ancient Egyptian game of strategy" with a suggested retail around $7.

Mr. Alpher said Lowe is doubling its TV budget for 1967. "Specifically, intensive spot campaigns are scheduled for Dallas-Fort Worth, Indianapolis and Columbus, Ohio, with other markets to be added later."

A spring promotion schedule will include Yahtzee and Scribbage, the Lowe staples, and a pre-Christmas campaign will concentrate on the new items, Mr. Alpher concluded.

Utility Chemical Redesigns Containers

The Utility Chemical Company, Paterson, N.J., is currently offering its complete line of algacides, PH control agents, chlorine agents, filtration aids, water testing equipment and pool maintenance chemicals in redesigned plastic containers and plastic caps. Paper labels have been discarded in favor of lettering directly applied to the container.

Utility has been producing chemicals for 17 years and has been involved in research and the development of swimming pool chemicals.

Bronner Offers New "Matchbox" Miniatures

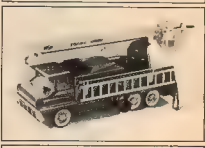

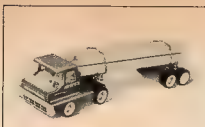

The Fred Bronner Corporation, the exclusive distributors of the "Matchbox" line of die-cast metal miniatures, is showing a number of new items and displays at the 1967 International Toy And Trade Fair, to be held in March at the New York Hilton.

Among the new miniatures to be shown is a #8 Mustang that shows a steering mechanism that actually turns the front wheels, #Y-4 in the Models of Yesteryear collection, a 1909 Opel Coupe which shows a removable roof and plated accessories, and #K-18, a large model of a horse transporter vehicle that comes with four horses.

The company is also showing a "Matchbox" Collector's Case, #CC348, $3.99 retail, which has space for 48 miniatures, #MVR-75, a motorized display that shows a carousel-type dome, #404 a compact display in yellow, red and blue that holds 19 large models, and a gold-toned rack, YCR, for four-dozen blister-packed cards.

Structo is growing up this year

Growing up with nine new models to lead the line for 1967. These new models represent a massive tooling investment without price increases. Add them to the rest of the Structo line, and you've got a great thing going for you . . . great because they're not promotional toys that have to be discounted to the non-profit level. You get profit, your customer gets satisfaction.

Grown-up approach to advertising is directed to the major buying influence for toy trucks: parents . . . in the magazines that reach 68,301,000 adults. Life. Look. Saturday Evening Post and Reader's Digest. This represents a major investment on our part . . . to help you sell.

Put it all together and it means the hottest year yet for Structo trucks . . . it's a line to grow on.

TOYS and NOVELTIES—July 1, 1967

Structo is growing up this year

Believe it or not, you're looking at two of your biggest customers. Most decisions to buy toy trucks are made by parents, not by their sons. A lot of toys are purchased because kids ask for them . . . the spectacular, fad kind. But this isn't true of staples like steel trucks.

Because of this, Structo is making a dramatic change in its advertising program. We're going to advertise to adults . . . the 68,301,000 of them that read Life, Look, Reader's Digest and Saturday Evening Post regularly. Our products have the features that sell adults: durability, strength, and quality. Our ads will dramatize this in a new and exciting way . . . and the objective will be: "get parents to ask for Structo by name."

In addition to this potent advertising campaign, Structo will provide you with a whole range of merchandising services, including glossy photos, ad mats, reproduction line drawings and, of course, the highly merchandisable see-thru package plus our factory warranty. Let yourself grow . . . with Structo.

as it does with a lot of other toys it makes. I'm told that Tomy's rich imagination, which it puts into toys, is making a big hit everywhere. Even Business Week has been saying something flattering about Tomy. The article in part said:

"One of them is Tomy Toy Co., Japan's biggest toy maker. Tomy employs 2,000 workers and turns out about $1-million worth of toys every month from four scattered plants. The company has already moved one of its plants to Onocha-nomachi, and plans to relocate two more there.

"To take advantage of the government's business consolidation program, Tomy's president, Eijiro Tomiyama, began four years ago to enlist other companies into an association of manufacturers interested in banding together at a new site."

Structo is growing up this year

Believe it or not, you're looking at two of your biggest customers. Most decisions to buy toy trucks are made by parents, not by their sons. A lot of toys are purchased because kids ask for them . . . the spectacular, fad kind. But this isn't true of staples like steel trucks.

Because of this, Structo is making a dramatic change in its advertising program. We're going to advertise to adults . . . the 68,301,000 of them that read Life, Look, Reader's Digest and Saturday Evening Post regularly. Our products have the features that sell adults: durability, strength, and quality. Our ads will dramatize this in a new and exciting way . . . and the objective will be: "get parents to ask for Structo by name."

In addition to this potent advertising campaign, Structo will provide you with a whole range of merchandising services, including glossy photos, ad mats, reproduction line drawings and, of course, the highly merchandisable see-thru package plus our factory warranty. Let yourself grow . . . with Structo.

Bill Quinn says this car should have 20,000 wheels!

Who does he think he is?

He's the new president of the Burlington Railroad.

Our new number one wheel knows teamwork when he sees it.

He knows that's what it took to win the highest award in railroading.
The Golden Freight Car, awarded by the Railway Progress Institute.

"This little car rolled in here on 20,000 Burlington 'wheels'. The credit belongs to all of them."

Bill Quinn also knows that a little 10-pound freight car could be the heaviest car on our line. Because being singled out for making the "greatest contribution to the development of freight traffic" carries with it a heavy responsibility.

A responsibility that will drive the hard-driving wheels even harder. So don't be surprised to hear about more innovations in computerization, human relations, training, and freight car efficiency.

One thing you can expect from the Burlington. The unexpected!

Our new president is a marketing-minded innovator from way back. His, too, is a spirit that challenges the impossible.

And wins.

from Winnipeg, Canada

Here's a vacation idea for people who want "something different" this year—a 6-day escorted CN tour to Churchill, on the edge of Canada's vast Arctic northland. Start off in Winnipeg, site of the 1967 Pan-American Games (July 22 to August 7th). Visit Dauphin, Flin Flon, Thompson, The Pas. CN's Churchill tour is truly unique. You'll sightsee with a difference . . . meet friendly people who make this remote land home. And CN accommodations mean a holiday that's relaxing. Comfortable. Carefree. You'll enjoy famous CN service and fine food all the way. CN calls it "Traveliving". You'll call it great. CN—your hospitality route to Canada's vacationlands.

that red ink was beginning to stain its passenger books. And on WP, the CZ and its passengers had to stand on their own, because mail never amounted to much, express dwindled to zero last year, and after the discontinuance of an RDC Zephyrette the road had no other scheduled first-class service. The losses occurred, and then spiraled when CZ revenues held steady (at 22 to 23 million dollars a year for WP) but expenses, notably wages, climbed. For example, when the train was new in 1950 the average engine and train employee received $1.92 an hour; by 1965 the rate was $3.32—a 73 per cent boost during a 15-year period of static passenger receipts.

By 1965 WP was losing between $816,700 and 27 million dollars a year on its passenger business, depending on which of four accounting yardsticks (direct expenses, avoidable costs, solely related passenger expenses, and total passenger expenses) one used to measure the deficit. An attempt to kill the CZ that year derailed when the pre-Menk Burlington mounted a press release campaign to save the streamliner. WP tried again in September 1966 and patiently waited until mid-February 1967 for an admittedly perplexed Interstate Commerce Commission to make up its mind about a case it termed "unique."

The Commission exclaimed that the case was unprecedented because CZ's load factor was excellent, most of its passengers were aboard for reasons "pleasurable rather than utilitarian," and there were virtually no complaints registered about any deterioration in quality of service. Still, the I.C.C. agreed with WP that CZ imposed a "substantial economic burden" on the road which would increase as the need neared to rebuild or replace the 18-year-old equipment. Thus pinned between CZ's loyal fans and WP's unquestioned arithmetic, the Commission ordered Nos. 17 and 18 to be run one more year during which WP should investigate self-help measures, including a better split with its partners on fares and costs.

The Case of the CZ (Finance Docket 24277) is scarcely as unprecedented as the Commission labeled it, for only five years ago the agency took a remarkably similar stand when Rio Grande was restrained from abandoning its Durango-Silverton (Colo.) branch—a summer-only, nowhere-to-nowhere narrow-gauge line whose slim justification for a "public convenience and necessity" mandate is the tax base it furnishes for a couple of remote Colorado counties.

More scissoring of the Guide

More passenger last runs are in the offing, including a fair shake-out of named trains:

Illinois Central wants to kill its Chicago-Waterloo (Ia.) Land O'Corn, which began life in 1941 as a pair of self-propelled ACF Motorailers and soon graduated to a full-fledged streamliner. IC cites falling passenger volume and a 40 per cent loss of mail for out-of-pocket losses exceeding $300,000 a year.

Burlington has discontinued through Denver Zephyr cars to Colorado Springs, Colo. (handed beyond Denver behind D&RGW's Royal Gorge), a service begun

Karen was busy. I was in the bathroom

she "Bye." And she said "Good night."

I was fine. It was awful. But when I was alone. I was in the library.
Aunt Rose said: "What's the matter?
You're not doing it."

But I can be so naive about other peogood is that? Sing and description are okay for kids, but the problem is, when you should be taking a more pleasant position and standing or falling on it.

So of course Stacy said, "Never mind,
you will soon get it."

I said: "I don't understand it."

But I was alone. I finally decided about my twenty birthday. I was dis-went to the store and then I went to the alone. I was alone. I was alone. I was alone.

I was alone. I was alone. I was alone. I was alone.

I wish I knew why people think it helps to be with something hard if they say how easy it is for them.

But Karen Sue didn't say ahead.

I wish I could be a physical property

I don't understand the relationships that have to do with it.

But now, when it opened, I went and I went into it. I went into it. I went into it. I went into it. I went into it. I went into it. I went into it. I went into it.

So I went back with the car and I went to the car and I went to the car. I went to the car. I went to the car. I went to the car. I went to the car. I went to the car. I went to the car. I went to the car.

America's Electric Power Grows with Coal

A major share of the coal for the current and new utility market will be transported by rail. Unit trains move coal efficiently and economically, saving $100 million a year for electric utilities and their customers (Worthington Corp. Transportation Survey, 1967.) pipes running up the mountainside. "That," said Gary looking at a map, "must be Whipple Pumping Station." Indeed it was Whipple Intake, from where one billion gallons of water a day are pumped from Lake Havasu into the Metropolitan Water District aqueduct for a 242-mile sloop over the desert to towns and cities in Southern California, including Los Angeles and San Diego.

Parker Dam, which the Daytons reached a few minutes later, was completed in 1938 as a water storage supply for syphoning off to Southern California and for hydro-electric power. Two-thirds of Parker Dam's height—235 feet—is below the river bed, making it the deepest dam in the world. Only 85 feet protrudes above the bed, with superstructures that rise another 83 feet. Lake Havasu backs up for 45 miles behind the Dam, covering 25,000 acres or 39 square miles.

Construction of the dam nearly caused a war between Arizona and California but a special Act of Congress settled the dispute. In seeking to block construction of the dam, Arizona had sent some state militia to Parker. There they boarded a scow and promptly were dubbed the "Arizona Navy."

An arm of the lake veers off from the dam on the Arizona side and the Daytons, after stopping at Havasu Springs, another resort, entered this waterway, called the Bill Williams Arm of the lake after a stream that enters there. With its high volcanic cliffs and protected waters, this is one of the most majestic sections of the Lower Colorado.

In the late fall and again in the spring, Canadian geese pause there on their migratory flights, protected by a portion of the Havasu Lake Wildlife Refuge.

Now the Daytons reversed their course. They had covered almost 20 miles from Lake Havasu City to the Bill Williams Arm.

On the way back historic Pilot Rock, a landmark dating from the wood-burning steamboat days on the river, and Copper Canyon, a long, narrow cove of

Custom Detail Of The Future. BUBBLETOP CANOPY

If Century's Coronado

Candid luxury, outstanding performance and classic style come together in these 21 dream feet of custom runabout. "Ultimate" comes to mind and it is probably appropriate here for the Coronado affords the water sportsman everything he looks for in terms of quality, construction and design. Meticulously clean in line and dazzling in its competence at speed, the Coronado has long been a exquisite beauty, demanded stops. It was noon by then and time for lunch at the Nautical Inn, a lakeside hotel overlooking Thompson Bay.

In the afternoon, the Daytons pointed uplake, stopping to tour the McCulloch Marine Products Test Center and passing the last of the lake's resorts, Havasu Landing, on the California shoreline.

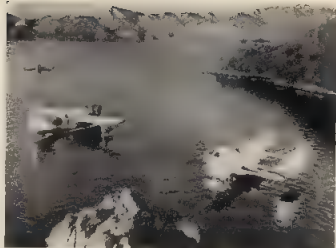

From Havasu Landing to Lake Havasu City, the lake spreads out to its widest, approximately three miles. Overlooking this bay on the Lake Havasu City side is Havasu Cove, a 112-acre public campground with picnic tables, barbecues, trailer sites and a mile of beachfront.

All along the shoreline and continuing downlake for 16 miles is 13,000-acre Lake Havasu State Park, managed by the State of Arizona as a buffer strip to guarantee public recreational facilities in future years.

Seven miles above Lake Havasu City, the lake narrows down at Castle Rock and enters a stretch of superb beauty, interspersed with sandbars, tule beds, cattails, willows and the ever-present volcanic rocks.

Among the scenic spots is Blankenship Bend where Havasu makes a sweeping "S" turn and where the Daytons spotted fishermen casting for rainbow trout.

By now the current of the Colorado can be felt in the lake and it becomes stronger at Mohave Rock and Picture Rock where, within 200 yards of the Arizona shoreline, are petroglyphs, Indian writings of historical significance.

A couple of amphibians rendezvous in Lake Havasu cove. Many vacationers use City Airport but "amphibians" set right down on the lake, set up camp nearby.

It was there that the Daytons pitched camp, on a high, rocky point giving a panoramic view. At the foot of the camp was a sandy stretch on which they beached their boat.

Waterskiing, swimming and fishing occupied their time and they employed the camp as a takeoff point to inspect other portions of the lake, including the famed Devil's Elbow where Havasu takes a 90-degree turn between cliffs of burnt orange volcanic rocks. Late in the afternoon, when the sun has set and the

1967 the year of the Sea-Horse

18 purebreds
in 10 power classes — performance backed by our 2-year warranty*

TRIM Sweet and low 9½ (pictured) is the world's best-selling outboard. Others are the Slick 6 and 5, Twin-tote 3's come "straight" or fold-away. Both are available as high-thrust with right-angle drive and 3-blade prop or Angle-Matic with weedless 2-blade prop.

TORRID Start with the Fast 40. Available as Electramatic, standard electric or manual start. The 33 comes standard-electric or manual starting. Our high-spooned 20 (pictured) rounds out the middle of our line with refinements for amazing fuel economy.

Power/Pulse ignition for Johnson V-100

No breakers, no points, no condensers — smooth power throughout the speed spectrum

This little black box is the heart of the solid-state system that eliminates ignition service and adjustment for V-100 owners ... that promotes instant starts followed by uncanny smoothness, even at the slowest idle, regardless of the engine's state of tune ... that has such an anti-fouling effect on spark plugs you can expect 5 to 10 times longer plug life. This tremendous performance booster is more — much more — than you get with any other production ignition system. Standard on the Sea-Horse V-100. Other V-100 standards are Electramatic drive (shifts automatically, electrically) and a host of refinements that enables it to run on less fuel than last year's model.

FORMIDABLE Among Johnson's bold crew of big V's is the versatile V-80 (pictured). FOURS Two models. One is Electramatic with exclusive fully automatic shift and throttle control. The other standard-electric with mechanical forward-neutral-reverse transmissions. The V-60 Sea-Horse is also available in two versions. One with high speed gear case for medium loads and hulls. The other with heavy-duty, high-thrust gear case for big loads. New adjustable stern bracket is standard on our V-4's — makes it easy to position your engine for maximum performance.

These men have just given birth to a baby.

For two long years, Elliot Handler and his R&D group have been laboring on this doll. And on the rest of Mattel's new toys for 1967.

They've conceived some pretty impressive items in years past. Like the Fanner-50 and the Winchester® Shootin' Shell Rifle. Like Chatty Cathy, See 'N Say, and Baby First Step. Like Cheerful Tearful, Liddle Kiddles, and the Thingmakers.

Oh, yes. And a doll called Barbie. (Named after Elliot's own daughter.)

Now he and his R&D group have the 1967 line ready for delivery. So when you come to Toy Fair, stop by the Mattel Showrooms and take a look at the new arrivals.

And if you like them (or even if you don't), be sure to tell Elliot how you feel. Like any father, he's proud of his kids.

Over 30 new products

from Revell

They'll be released in early 1967. More than 30 new products...to excite your old customers to new purchases, and to attract new customers for even bigger profits.

In Space. The Gemini spacecraft is a big seller...now there are three more. There will be two versions of the Apollo spacecraft...plus an astronaut...as part of Revell's '67 space program.

In the Air: Apollo will be in the news in 1967, and so will the new Supersonic Transport (SST). That's right Revell will have an SST model, too. Also four new planes in a new large scale: two Vietnam-type helicopters, the Spitfire, the "Flying Tiger" and the Messerschmitt BF 109F.

On Land. Funny Cars are the big sensation on the drag strip this year. So, Revell has two new ones: the Dodge "Revelion" and the Studebaker "Miss Dee." And two more Big Wheels...a Honda Srambler and a '67 Volkswagen station wagon.

On the Sea: Just about the most famous ship in history, the "Big E"...the USS Enterprise will carry Revell colors this year. Add to this six new naval ships—some in a new small scale—plus a new large scale sailing ship.

Home Racing: Six hot new sets this year, for this hot new sport. Another first for Revell...banked track for top speed and excitement! Also lap counters and popular new cars like Camaro, Mustang and Ferrari Squiao.

That's not all. New advertising, new merchandising, new promotions. A total of 124 ads, reaching an audience of over 60,000,000 customers. Your customers. '67 will be a great year for Revell. And you?

1967 OUTBOARD MOTORS

Johnson

□ Sea-Horse outboards from Johnson Motors, Waukegan, Ill. #6085 are rated at 3, 5, 6, 9.5, 20, 33, 40, 60, 80 and 100 hp for 1967 and are reported to offer increased fuel economy as well as other improvements. The 100-hp Golden Meteor, largest of the new Sea-Horses, is fired by a Power-Pulse ignition system that eliminates points, condensers and breakers, and delivers high-voltage current to plugs twenty times faster than conventional ignition. Fuel savings with the Sea-Horse 20 at cruising speeds are as great as 30%, says Johnson, and a new mounting system on the 9.5 has improved idling and slow trolling. Adjustable four-position transom mounting clamps and alternator-generators are standard on the 60-, 80- and 100-hp engines. An additional 20 mph has been added to the 20's performance with a new propeller, and new compact fuel pumps have been installed on the 5- and 6-hp Sea-Horses. All 1967 Johnson outboards use a 50:1 gas-oil mix and all are covered by a two-year warranty against defects.

Mercury

□ Several new developments have been engineered by the Klekhaefer Corp., Fond du Lac, Wisc. into its 1967 line of Mercury outboards. Solid-state Thunderbolt ignition will fire the 110-hp Merc 1100SS, the 95-hp Merc 950SS, the 65-hp Merc 650SS and the 50-hp Merc 500SS with high voltage produced by a capacitance-discharge system that has no breaker points and never needs timing corrections. All nine '67 engines use a 50:1 gas-oil mix with Quicksilver Formula 50 outboard oil, and Polar-Gap spark plugs, reported to last several seasons, are standard on SS models with Thunderbolt ignition. MerCathode is a new anti-corrosion accessory that thwarts salt-water corrosion on any outboard or stern drive by impressing current from the engine battery. The Mercury line is rated at 110, 95, 65, 50, 35, 20, 9.5, 6 and 3.9 hp and incl. improved fuel econ. for the 95-20-hp engines, increased displacement for boosted power on the 65-hp engine, more compact styling for the 50, and special plugs with 1/2" reach on all models.

Evinrude

□ Ten basic engines will be sold in '67 by Evinrude Motors, Milwaukee, Wisc. 53216, with most available in several models. Horsepower ratings are 100, 80, 50, 40, 33, 18, 9.5, 6, 5 and 3. Evinrude's big Starflite 100-S, holder of the 130.9-mph world outboard speed record, is equipped this year with a completely electronic ignition that delivers a high-voltage spark and does away with the points and mechanical contacts of conventional ignition. Evinrude 80-, 80- and 100-hp engines have transom mounts that adjust 2 1/4" vertically for better mating with the boat. Six-amp alternators are standard on the 60 and 80, with 15-amp alternators on the 80-hp de luxe Starflite and the 100-S. New fuel pumps have been installed on the 6, 9.5 and 18, and the latter now has a spark advance. An all-purpose fishing motor, the 9.5 has new suspension and new carburetion for smoother trolling. The folding 3-hp motor introduced by Evinrude last year is sold for '67 in a fixed-shaft version as well. The 3 hp Yachtwin and 5-hp Angler may be had with a 30" shaft for pushing sailboats; all other models are available with 15" or 20" shafts, except the 100-S whose only lower unit is 20". Each new Evinrude burns a 50:1 gas-oil mix and is sold with a two-year warranty.

McCulloch

□ Lightweight electric-start engines for anglers are built in 7 1/2- and 9-hp sizes by the McCulloch Corp., 6101 W. Century Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif. 90045. The electrica have flywheel-mounted starters and generators and a start button mounted at the tip of the control handle. Both engines are also sold in manual-start models. Smallest of the McCulloch fishing engines is a 39-pound air-cooled 4-hp motor that idles down to 400 rpm. Larger '67 engines from McCulloch are rated at 14, 28, 45 and 75 hp. The 28, 45 and 75 are available with electric starting, and the 14 and 45 are built in special heavy-duty "Ox" models for workboats which require high torque.

OUTBOARD MOTORS

Chrysler

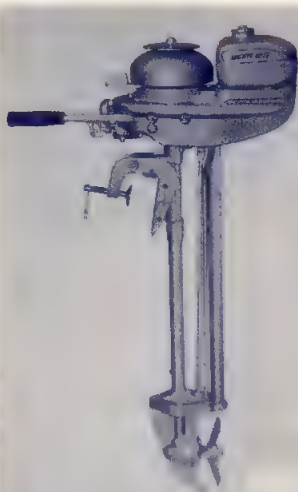

□ Nine outboards ranging from a powerful 105-hp engine to a lightweight of 3.5 are announced for the new season by the Chrysler Outboard Corp., Hartford, Wis. 53027. Entirely new is the 55-hp Chrysler 55, an engine that weighs less than 140 pounds and may be had with manual starting, standard electric starting, or alternator electric starting. Also light for their power class are the Chrysler 105 and 75, largest in the line. Mid range engines from Chrysler, at 35 and 45 hp, are sold with a choice of 15" or 20" shafts, manual or electric starting. The 20 and 9.2 are available in Autoelectric models with key-starting and battery power for accessories such as lights, radios and even electric shavers. All Chrysler engines below 20 hp may be fitted with 20" shafts for use aboard sailboats, and the 6 can be fitted with a 30" shaft. The entire line is sold with a two year warranty on parts and service, and engines of 20 hp and over burn a 50:1 gas:oil mix.

Homelite

□ Four-cycle operation, with its inherent advantages of fuel economy and steady operation at low speeds, is afforded the outboard boatman by the Homelite 55-hp Grand Prix from the Engine Division of the Fisher-Pierce Co., Box 71F, Wollaston, Mass. 02170. The 55 burns straight gasoline with no oil mixture and has an overhead-cam design, a 500-rpm idle capacity, cooling system with thermostatic controls, and a 20-amp alternator with a switch to control its charging rate. A powerhead suspension system and mufflers on air intake and exhaust are said to effectively damp noise and vibration. Fisher-Pierce boasts that at full speed, the Grand Prix uses about 1/2 as much fuel as comparable 2-cycle engines under similar conditions.

British Seagull

□ Heavy-duty power for pushing sailboats and other displacement craft has been engineered into the several British Seagull outboards sold on these shores by Seagull Marine Sales, 872 S. Lafayette Park Pl., Los Angeles, Calif. 90057, Inland Marine, 76 E. Jackson St., Wilkes-Barre, Pa. 18701; and Intra Corp., 11 University Rd., Cambridge, Mass. British Seagulls have one cylinder and turn four-bladed wheels through 3:1 and 4:1 reduction. Both long and standard shaft lengths are available on all motors.

The 1.7-hp Neptune Mighty Mite

Neptune Mighty Mite

□ The $34.50 Neptune Mighty Mite delivers 1.7 hp from its trim 17-pound package, according to Muncie Gear Works, Box 433, Cordele, Ga., and operates for 15¢ an hour. The one-cylinder lightweight is sold with a 90-day guarantee against defects in parts and workmanship.

My-te Electric

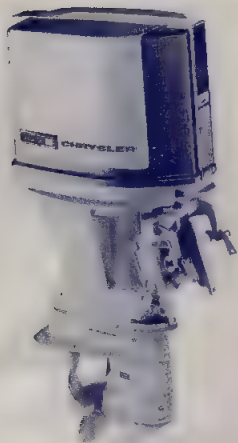

□ Quiet electric-powered angling is the boast of City Engineering Co., 3547 Massachusetts Ave., Indianapolis, Ind. 46216 for its My-te Electric outboard. The 12-volt electric has four speeds, the lowest well below 500 rpm. Its price is in the $100 range and it has 360° steering and a weedless design lower unit.

Commando VII

□ An air-cooled lightweight for fishermen is the 4-hp Commando VII built by Comanco, Inc., Washington Blvd. at Motor Ave., Culver City, Calif. and sold for $89.95. The 22-pound Commando has 360° steering, semi-weedless prop, and is reported to move a boat at 12 mph as well as troll down to 1 mph for fishing.

Here's why Owens is number 1 in boating. They're a leader in the industry. Owens is the home of new ideas. Exciting advances. Owens is the company of the future.

Today, the big news is in fiberglass. It's Owens' 35-foot Barbary. She's got a 12'6" beam. Her roomy 380 square foot cabin area sleeps six. And man-size galley can take care of the fixings for a Sunday dinner. Barbary's good-looking outside. (Owens forgot most of that silly chrome.) And raring to go inside with the most power-

Owens' power plant is a real mechanical marvel. (For example: it weighs in at 690 pounds for 225 horsepower.)

Aruba (42 ft. Aft Well Yacht)

Fits into compact quarters. And lives on standard gas.

Every Owens' hull gets the full paint treatment. They countersink all screw holes. And then plug them so you don't know where they were.

pore is sealed one, two, three, four times. Then they cover all their work with three different glaze operations. Next comes the undercoat three coats strong. Followed (not once, but twice) by the slickest finish you ever saw yourself in.

Stand directly in front of an Owens' hull. Look at it.

See the deep vee formed by the bow. Follow that vee back to the stern. Notice how it gradually widens.

That knife-like bow cuts a wave like it was a pie meringue. And so you won't get the bump of your life, these waves reel right off the deep vee to port and starboard.

All the hull designing won't mean a thing if your power plant is too much. Or too little. Owens' engineers, by some pretty complicated slide rule process, mate every boat's power to its hull vee. This means that they can practically guarantee you a seasick-proof ride. You can even have a little fun with a hull like this. Take a 35-degree turn at high speed without getting your feet wet.

And everybody likes the kind of frosting that makes sense.

1967 SAILBOATS

Pearson Yachts

□ The Wanderer, a 30'3" keel-centerboard auxiliary for cruising or racing, is new from Pearson Yachts, Division of Grumman Allied Industries, Bristol, R.I. The Wanderer measures an ocean-racing minimum, but has been designed, says Pearson, with a rig of high aspect ratio, long waterline, and hydrodynamic features that make her a competitor of note. Also launched this year by Pearson was an MORC cruiser-racer, the 29'10" Coaster. Other cruising hulls from Pearson range from the 25'7" Ariel to the 44'6" Countess. Overnighters and daysailers range from the 25'7" Commander to a 7'6" sailing dinghy. The 44'6" Countess balances power and sail performance by sailing with 856 sq. ft. of ketch-rigged sail or powering with a 110-hp Lathrop diesel. Below, she has berths for six. The racing-cruising 37'6" Invicta sleeps six and is available as a sloop or a yawl. The 34'9" Alberg 35 is a sloop or yawl with six berths, 30-hp Universal auxiliary. Similar in power and accommodation is the 32'6"1/2" Vanguard sloop. The popular Triton sleeps five and may be rigged as a sloop or yawl. The Ariel and the Commander share a 25'7" hull, the Ariel with a full cruising cabin and the Commander with a four-berth cuddy.

Jensen Marine

□ Fiberglass cruising and racing sailboats built by Jensen Marine Corp., 3783 Placentia Ave., Costa Mesa, Calif. include this past year's Bermuda Race and SORC winner, the Lapworth-designed Cal 40. A cruising and racing sloop with berths for eight, the Cal 40 is small and simple enough in rig, says Jensen, to be sailed by a couple. Other Jensen "Cal" boats are the 20' x 18' x 7' x 5'4" Cal 20 with berths for up to three; the 24' x 20' x 8' x 4'6" (board down) Cal 24 with four berths and a hull small enough for trailering; and the 28' x 22'6" x 8' Cal 28.

Columbia Yacht Corp.

□ Just launched by the Columbia Yacht Corp., 849 W. 18th St., Costa Mesa, Calif. 92626 is the Columbia Constellation, a 39'3" x 25'3" x 10'8" x 5'3" cruising and racing sloop with large and uncluttered decks, minimum wetted surface, 695 sq. ft. of working sail, divided cockpit and spade rudder. Below are berths for seven in a spacious teak-trimmed layout with a large galley convenient to both cockpit and main cabin. Other Columbia cruising/racing yachts are the Tripp-designed Columbia 50, a flush-deck sloop with berths for eight in four staterooms; a 31' keel-centerboard sloop designed by Charles Morgan; a six-berth 34' keel-centerboard sloop that draws only 3'8" with the board up; and a fiberglass copy of the championship 5.5-meter boat Carina. There are ten other Columbia sloops from 22'.

The Anchorage

□ The Dyer Delta, a 19' fast-planing centerboard sloop, is the largest hull in the fiberglass sailing fleet built by The Anchorage, Warren, R.I. 02685. Designed as a three-man boat for racing, equally adept at daysailing, she measures 18'8"1/2" x 16'6" x 6'8" x 6" draft with the board up. Her approximate $2300 price includes full fittings for racing. Extra is 180 sq. ft. of working sail, spinnaker and spinnaker pole. The celebrated Dyer Dhow, favorite of the Frostbiters and designed originally as a World War II lifeboat used by three navies, is available in 9' rowing models at $345, and as sailing dinghies with 45 sq. ft. of sail for $520. The Dyer Dhow Midget is a 7'11" version of the 9' hull, sold for $325 in a rowing model and $490 with sail. The 10' Class D Dyer Dink, designed by Philip L. Rhodes, is $495 in a rowing model, $730 in a sailing version with 66 sq. ft. of sail. The Dyer Dink is favored as a tender by a number of leading ocean racers.

Anchor Sailboats

□ Four fiberglass sloops designed by F. S. Ford Jr. are built by the Anchor Sailboat Division of MFG Boats, Union City, Pa. Largest is the Ford 20 Weekender, a 20-footer with 7' beam and berths for two in a cuddy cabin. A centerboard sloop, she draws 8" with the board up and carries 205 sq. ft. of sail. The 17'3" Redhead is a fast centerboard daysailer with a cuddy cabin and a large self-bailing cockpit. Sail area is 178 sq. ft. and draft with the board up is 8". A one-design class boat with planing performance is the 14' x 6' Pintail, a centerboard sloop with 122 sq. ft. of sail and draft with the board up of 6". Her weight with full rig is 400 pounds. Small but versatile is the 11' Whistler, a dinghy that may be rigged as a sloop or catboat. She weighs 200 pounds fully rigged and carries 74 sq. ft. of sail in the sloop rig. Spinnakers and spinnaker poles are optional on all four boats.

Chris-Craft

□ There are three new sailing yachts this year in the fiberglass fleet built by the Chris-Craft Corp., Pompano Beach, Fla. 33061. Designed by Sparkman & Stephens, the new Apache 37 is a cruising-racing fin-keel sloop with high-aspect-ratio rig and a CCA rating of approximately 27.3. Below decks, she has six berths and a large stainless-steel galley. She carries 606 sq. ft. of sail, including a 100% foretriangle, and has two #5 winches in the cockpit and a #2 top-action jib halyard winch. The new Cherokee 32 is another Sparkman & Stephens design similar in concept with six berths and a CCA rating estimated at 23.5. Two 26-footers from Chris-Craft are the four-berth MORC cruising-racing Capri, and the two-berth Capitan with a large cockpit for daysailing. The 30' Shields Class keel sloop is a full racing hull with growing one-design fleets, conducting races throughout the country.

SAILBOATS

O'Day Company

□ The 19'2" Mariner, a sloop that's racer, dayailer and overnight cruiser, is built by the O'Day Company, 106 Stevens St., Fall River, Mass. Designed by Phil Rhodes, the Mariner measures 19'2" x 7' x 3'3" (keel model) or 10' (centerboard model), and carries 185 sq. ft. of sail. Two berths are in the cuddy cabin, the large cockpit is floored with Philippine mahogany, and spars have roller reefing gear. The price, less sails, is $2765. There are 21 other boats in the O'Day fiberglass fleet from the 7'11" Seven-Eleven sailing dinghy to the 26' Outlaw cruising and racing sloop. Prices range from $275 to $8650.

Arthur Piver

□ Trimarans and catamarans from the drawing board of Arthur Piver are available in plan form or fully constructed from Pi-Craft, Box 449, Mill Valley, Calif. 94041. New this year in a line of several dozen hulls from daysailers to large cruising craft are several trimarans with semicircular central hull forms, round-bottom ocean racing models, and a 30-footer that is demountable for trailer travel. Designs are planned especially for the home builder, although selected yards throughout the world are authorized by the designer to turn out completed boats. Kits and partially-built hulls are also available.

Winner Boats

□ A 23'6" fiberglass fin-keel sloop, the Bolero, is built by Winner Boats, Inc., Box 231, Dickson, Tenn. 37055 and sold, less sails, for below $3500. The two-berth overnighter divides her space between a large cockpit for daysailing and suitable quarters for cruising. Her spade rudder, fin keel and low wetted surface make her a competitor as well, says Winner. Her cockpit is self-bailing and she has enough foam flotation to be unsinkable.

Larson

□ Two fiberglass scow-type sailboats are new this year from the Boat Division of Larson Industries, Inc., 2325 Endicott St., St. Paul, Minn. The Regatta 162 is a 16' M-Class one-design sloop with 150 sq. ft. of dacron sail, priced at $1395 with aluminum mast and boom. With spruce mast and boom approved by Inland Lakes Yachting Association, the price is $1495. The 13' Regatta 132 is a lightweight scow-type daysailer that can be loaded on a car-top. The price is $695 with 85 sq. ft. of dacron sail, aluminum rudder and centerboard, and aluminum mast and boom.

Whitby Boat Works

□ A racing-cruising Alberg 30 is built of fiberglass by Whitby Boat Works, Ajax, Ontario, Canada, and sold at a basic price of $11,800, less sails. The 30'3" x 21'8" x 8'9" x 4'3" sloop was designed by Karl Alberg to combine racing vigor with cruising comfort. Her racing reputation is secure after several victories, and her cruising virtues speak for themselves. Below, in a layout trimmed with teak, are two vee berths forward, two settee berths flanking a folding table in the main cabin, galley surrounding the companionway, and an enclosed head. Auxiliary power is a 25-hp Graymarine Sea-Scout. Other fiberglass hulls built by Whitby are the 25'3" x 7'3" x 3'11" Continental 25, a fiberglass Folkboat double-ender, the 15' Albatross planing dinghy, and the 8'7" x 4' Water Rat sailing dinghy.

Glastron's Alpha

□ Powerboating's Glastron Boat Co., Box 9447, Austin, Texas, goes sailing this year with the 15' Alpha sailboat. The lightweight Alpha may be trailered or strapped to a cartop, says Glastron, and will be rigged and running in minutes when you've reached the water. Its lateen rig has 98 sq. ft. of sail; the hull has a tilt-up rudder and self-draining cockpit. There is a choice of blue or red hulls and sails.

Symons-Sailing

□ The fiberglass Corinthian 41 trimaran is molded in two sections—one-piece hull and one-piece deck by Gulf States Research and Development Corp. of Tarpon Springs, Fla., and sold by Symons-Sailing, Inc., Clocks Blvd., Amityville, N.Y. The 41' multihull has a 23'9" beam which makes possible generous quarters for as many as twelve in seven separate compartments, large galley-dining-lounge area in the deckhouse, and exceptional stowage space. Her 28" draft enables her to be beached and to operate in shoal waters. She sails with typical multihull dash and is equipped with a full complement of sail-trimming gear for her large ketch rig. The basic price, with considerable equipment, is $39,900.

Allied Boat Co.

□ The 30' Seawind, rigged as a sloop or ketch, and the Luders 33 cruising-racing sloop, are built of fiberglass by the Allied Boat Co., Inc., Main St., Catskill, N.Y. The Seawind is a beamy, five-berth cruising yacht that the builder claims "will cross the ocean if you will." Her basic price, less sails but with a 25-hp Gray SeaScout engine, is $17,500. Designed by Bill Luders for cruising and ocean racing, the Luders 33 has six berths, 25-hp Gray auxiliary, and a basic price, less sails, of $22,000.

Ray Greene

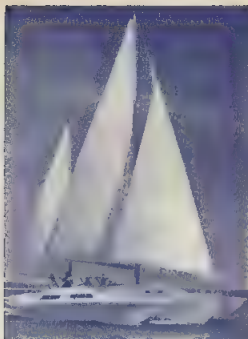

□ The seven boats in the fiberglass fleet built by Ray Greene & Co., Inc., 500 S. Byrne Rd., Toledo, Ohio 43609 range from the 10' Vixen dinghy to the 25'7" New Horizons cruising and racing auxiliary. The 10' x 54" Vixen weighs 225 pounds fully rigged, carries 80 sq. ft. of sail on aluminum spars, and sells for $649 with sails. The Nipper, a 12' centerboard daysailer that weighs 280 pounds fully rigged, is $849 in a fiberglass model, $599 with a plywood hull, both with sails. The 12' Slipper is $899 with sail and has a beamy fiberglass hull with room for several sailors. The 14' Rascal is a racing sloop in models with open or enclosed foredeck and prices of $1195 ready to sail. The Rebel is a 16' racing sloop built in three models with an $1850 basic price. Two cruising boats are the 24' Clipper One over-nighter and the 25'7" New Horizons with four berths and full cruising comforts.

Alcott

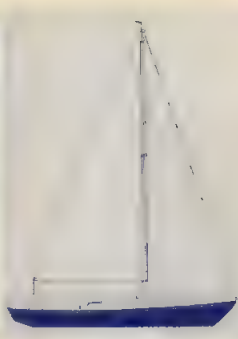

□ Sailfish, Sunfish and Catfish sport sailboats are built by Alcott, Inc., Box 1345, Waterbury, Conn. The Super Sailfish MK II is a 13'7" sailboat available in red, blue, white, green or yellow with 75 sq. ft. of lateen-rigged Dacron sail on an aluminum spar. Sails are sold in white or striped with red, green, blue or yellow. The fiberglass Sunfish 16 is a 13'10" sailboat with similar sails and spars. Both boats are also sold in kit form with hulls of Philippine mahogany and marine plywood and a choice of all white or striped sails. Also available is a kit for the 11'7"/s" standard Sailfish. The fiberglass Catfish is a 13'2" x 72" fast-planing catamaran designed by George W. Patterson. The Catfish has a 105 sq. ft. four-batten Dacron sail on a free-feeding aluminum spar, pivoting fiberglass centerboards, aluminum flip-up rudders and fittings of stainless steel and nylon.

Cape Cod Shipbuilding

□ The Cape Cod Shipbuilding Co. of Wareham, Mass., builders of stock sailboats since 1899, have added two new Herreshoff-designed sloops to their fleet this year. Both are fast-planing daysailers drawn from the same mold, the Gunter 12 keel model and the Gemini II with twin centerboards. Other fiberglass Cape Cod hulls range from a 9' dinghy to a 44' auxiliary designed by Bill Tripp, and include the Herreshoff-designed Cape Cod 30, a fiberglass version of the Atlantic sloop, the 24' planing Raven, a Rhodes 18 in keel or centerboard models, the 15' Mercury daysailer, the 16' Gemini twin-centerboard daysailer, and the daysailing Bulls Eye designed by Nathaniel Herreshoff in 1914.

Newport Boats

□ A Flying Dutchman has been added to the fleet of fiberglass racers and daysailers from Newport Boats, Rt. 1, Box 609, Hayes, Va. 23072. Built to the specifications of a six-time national champion, the Newport FD has a rudder that lifts vertically rather than pivoting, and a control console amidships for convenient sail trimming. Also new is a trim little dinghy, the 8' Flipper, for use as a tender or for junior sailors, and the Cal Cat, a catamaran for single-handling. Others are the 11'7" Kite dinghy, the 14'7" planing Skipjack, an Olympic Finn, the 17' Moback racer-daysailer, the swift Pacific Catamaran, a fiberglass Lightning, and the 27'7" Nomad shoal-draft cruising yacht. Newport's West Coast address is 1919 Placenta Ave., Costa Mesa, Calif.

Intercontinental Trimarans

□ Four cruising trimarans are built by Intercontinental Trimarans, Inc., Box 718, Wrightsville Beach, N.C. with plywood planking over plywood bulkhead frames with hulls and decks sheathed heavily with fiberglass. New for '87 is the smallest Intercontinental hull, the three-berth Trimar 24 with a basic price of $4200. The $12,900 Trimar 35 is slooper-rigged with fore and aft cabins and center cockpit, accommodations for five. The $27,500 Trimar 42 is built in raised-cabin and flush-deck models with eight berths in three separate cabins, 55-hp Starrett diesel auxiliary. The big Trimar 52 has accommodations for eight in four staterooms, basic price of $39,500.

Newporter

□ The Newporter cruising auxiliary is built by the Dorchester Shipbuilding Corp., Dorchester, N. J. 08316 with plywood planking over solid oak frames with the hull sheathed in several layers of fiberglass. Dimensions are 40' x 13' x 4'11". Below decks, in a layout made high (6'4" headroom) and spacious by her hard-chine design, are berths for six—all lowers—in three separate cabins. Several arrangements can be built at the buyer's option. The basic price, ready to sail, is $38,500 with dacron sails in a ketch rig and a 59-hp diesel auxiliary with a range of 800-1000 miles.

Snug Harbor Boat Works

□ Described as "ideal for the sailing beginner" is the 7'8" x 3'10" x 3" (board up) Thunderbird sailing pram built in kit or completed form by the Snug Harbor Boat Works, 101-21 Snug Harbor Rd., St. Petersburg 2, Fla. Ready to sail, the pram is $149.95; as a kit, it's $99.95.

Henry R. Hinckley

□ At the top of the fleet of fiberglass auxiliaries built by Henry R. Hinckley & Co., Southwest Harbor, Maine 04679 is the new Hinckley 48, a cruising-racing hull available as a sloop or yawl with comforts for eight below and a Westerbeke diesel auxiliary. The Hinckley 41, which rates under 28 for racing, is a keel sloop (or yawl) with dimensions of 41'2 1/2" x 24'2" x 10'2 1/4" x 6'1". The Bermuda 40 is another cruising-racing keel-centerboard yawl designed by Bill Tripp. The Pilot 35, designed by Sparkman & Stephens, is sold as a sloop or yawl with several arrangements and berths for as many as six.

Douglass & McLeod

□ Douglass and McLeod, Inc., Box 311, Painesville, Ohio, build the 20' x 6'8" Highlander planing sloop of fiberglass in completed hull or kit form. The handy Highlander can be used for racing or daysailing and will travel on a trailer. Her price, less sails, is $2435 as a completed boat. The company also builds the 17' x 6' x 4'6" Thistle of fiberglass in both completed and kit form. The price of the planing Thistle is $1800 less sails. A one-design class boat, the Thistle Class Association boasts over 2200 registered boats in some 130 fleets in the U.S. and Canada.

Grampian Marine

Gold finished model. $6.00 retail.
Single pen stands, too.

You know how men are when it comes to old cars. Pushovers. Real pushovers. That's why "Matchbox" Models of Yesterday desk accessories rolled up a sentimental gift-sales record last year.

This year we expect to do even better. Our authentic permanent finished silver or gold replicas of Maxwells, Renaults, Model "T" Fords and Mercedes Benz now stand firmly on new, rich wood-grained pen stands and cigarette boxes.

No ordinary gifts, these. They're made in England. And they look it. Beautifully polished. Meticulously crafted. And each small detail on the cars is just as it was some 60 years ago.

It's enough to turn a hard-bitten businessman into a year-round Santa Claus. (Especially when the top price is only six bucks). Incidentally, the pens actually write. That's a pretty good bargain even without the car.

Sudbury Explosion-proof Switch

□ The explosion-proof Fastart switch from Sudbury Laboratory, Box 2359, Sudbury, Mass., will double the voltage on the starter circuit for instant starts with a hotter spark and faster-spinning starter. The switch also permits the use of 12-volt equipment with a 6-volt system and serves as a battery selector permitting the use of one 6-volt battery or several. It is explosion proof and may safely be used with alternators as well as generators since it is designed to maintain charging load at all times. The price is $17.95.

Kandy Boatshu

□ New from the Randolph Shoe Co., Inc., 32 S. Main St., Randolph, Mass. 02368 is a leather yachting shoe designed by Gold Medal Olympic sailor George O'Day with slit-grip soles for firm footwork and hand-sewn uppers of soft steerhide in brown or smoked elk colors. The $19.95 shoe is available for men in medium widths and sizes from 6 1/2 to 13. Other Randy Boatshus have canvas uppers, soles with perimeter traction, and a steel shank within the sole for additional comfort.

Rule-Master Bilge Pump

□ Rule Marine Co., Beverly Farms, Mass. manufactures the tiny (8" high) but powerful Rule Master bilge pump, reported capable of pumping up to 1250 gallons per hour. A completely submersible pump whose capacity, says the company, is approximately 100% greater than competitive pumps, the Rule Master uses 5.8 amps at 12 volts. Housings and internal parts are molded of Delrin acetal resin for quiet operation and no possibility of corrosion.

Rule-Master Bilge Pump

Federal Flexible Coupling

□ The Federal Marine Motors Co., Box 50, Orland Park, Ill. manufactures a flexible marine coupling that puts a rubber damper between engine and shaft to do away with most vibration and noise

The coupling, says Federal, also eliminates electrolytic action between bronze prop and cast-iron engine. Models are available for all current U.S. engines to 500 hp.

Ski-Matic

□ A ski-rope retriever that reels the rope in electrically with the push of a button at the helm is the Ski-Matic from Brammell Industries, Inc., Box 208, Angola, Ind. 46703. One or several Ski-Matic reels can be installed on transom or floorboard and will operate on a 6- or 12-volt battery. When the rope is pulling a skier, strain is exerted on a special rope eyelet in the transom.

Guest Corp.

□ Five new battery-operated lights are announced by the Guest Corp. Bloomfield, Conn.: a combination running light, a cabin lamp, a personal safety flare, a signal beam, and a man-overboard flare. Other Guest lights are several anchor lights, an automatic marker light, the Xenon safety flare, and an electronic safety flare. The $59.95 Xenon flare is an automatic man-overboard light that begins flashing as soon as it hits water. Guest lights have stainless-steel fittings, watertight polypropylene cases, and sealed-beam lamps.

AMF Wheels Out Roadmaster Renegade

A new Roadmaster Renegade III, a 3-on-the-bar stick-shift bicycle in the 20" high-riser class, has been introduced by AMF Wheel Goods Division, American Machine & Foundry Company, in its 1967 line.

The new bike, carrying the Renegade III name of a similar 1966 AMF high-riser, shows a new stick shift and three-speed rear hub, contour-styled buddy saddle with chrome tuss rods, front and rear caliper brakes, white sidewall tires with a 20" by 2 1/2" knobby or slick rear size, and a 20" by 13" size in front, Monza magenta and LeMans lime yellow colors, and chrome fenders.

The new Renegade is one of seven 20" high-riser types in the 22-model 1967 AMF line.

Board King Offers Magnetic Play Boards

Board King Inc., Oceanside, N.Y., brought an expanded line of chalkboards and plastic boards to Toy Fair.

The firm also introduced a new packaging concept for point of sale. The new package virtually eliminates damage and makes the boards easier to handle by the store and by the customer.

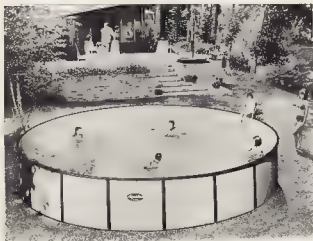

The Board King chalkboards come in 18" by 24" and 24" by 36" sizes. They feature nonglare black surface hardboards, aluminum frames with chalk rails and metal hangers for mounting. Also introduced was a plain chalkboard without frames to be retailed at a "superpromotional price."

The Board King Bulletin Boards also come in 18" by 24" and 24" by 36" sizes. Finewood mitered frames in natural decorator finish enclose the natural cork with cushioned backing.

Among the new plastic items is Board King's 6-in-1 Play Board, a Litho Metal Blackboard, a wipe-off crayon Slate on the reverse side, a Clock with movable hands, printed ABC Letters, Numbers, and counting Beads. Shrink-plastic wrapped, it comes complete with chalk and crayons packed in a printed display.

Other new items included Board King's Magnetic A-B-C Board, with colorful letters selected for the best arrangement of consonants and vowels, and the Magneto 1-2-3 Board, with colored numbers. Six different items in Board King's Chalk, Slate and Paint sets make up this line.

Plastics Division of Doughboy Readies 4 Aqualine Pools

For the 1967 season, the Plastics Division of Doughboy Industries, Inc., has four models in its Aqualine. One is 15' by 48" with a 5,288 gallon capacity; another 18' by 48" with a 7,616 gallon capacity; a third, 21' by 48", 10,364 gallon capacity; and a fourth, 24' by 48" with a 13,536 gallon capacity.

The vertical supports interlock with curved top and bottom rails and all pieces are hot-dipped galvanized, bonderized and finished with metallic baked-vinyl paint. Vinyl coping anchors the liner in place; and telescoping steel stabilizer rails, it is said, increase sidewall rigidity.

The ribbed-steel sidewalls have heavy-duty slide joints and are weather and wear resistant by galvanizing, bonderizing and the special paint finish. An access is provided for optional through-the-wall filter installation.

The sidewalls are light blue and the top and the bottom rails and supports are of a darker shade. The white bottom liner of Duraflex vinyl is a Doughboy sealing process.

TOYS AND NOVELTIES MARKETING TRENDS

Deliveries stall; shelves bare

AMT's 1967 model cars and MPC's car kit line were hot items.

Puzzles from just about everybody, but a definite slump in the intricate circular models.

CRAFTMASTER AND HALLMAN were selling across the board.

MILITARY MINIATURES, the little statutes of military figures to paint, emerged as a leading seller. Entries from LINES and AIR FIX were favorites.

Business in the Midwest was greatly affected by the devastating snowstorm. WHOLESALERS COULDN'T MAKE DELIVERIES to the retailers and their shelves ended up bare—especially the indoor pastime activity sets from every company, puzzles and various crafts.

The complete rundown on Christmas found:

Speed up roller skate sales with Speed King

the sidewalk line that's profit-proved

#480—Extra long extension.
Red wheels with matching pads. Ball Bearing Wheels.
Beautiful eye appeal.

#540—Trucks mounted on live cushions. Extends to 9". Fully bright plated

#495—Smooth running wheels with double row ball bearings. Oscillating trucks. Adjusts to 11 1/4".

MUSTLER CORPORATION

ST. LOUIS, ILLINOIS

snowbound sales in Midwest

There was little movement in dolls, trucks, guns, stuffed toys, wheel goods and most housekeeping items.

It was the season for puzzles, games, and plenty of action in the car kit field. Little or no action in trains, race sets, and traditional outdoor winter items. This last caused by the lack of snow, which has failed to land on the Midwest this season for any length of time.

Other good sellers, in various categories:

FISHER-PRICE LINE across the board: PLAY-SKOOL, especially in lower ticket numbers; TOOTSIE TOYS AND TINKER TOYS, BARBIE CLOTHES and CLOTHES FOR FRANCIE AND TUTTLE.

Games: OUIJA, HANDS DOWN.

The big one was very big.

The little one may be even bigger.

Remember Cheerful Tearful? You ought to. Mattel introduced her in 1966, and she turned out to be one of the hottest dolls to come along in years.

Now Mattel has come up with an amazing miniature Cheerful Tearful.® She's called Baby Cheerful Tearful,® because she's only about a third the size of her big sister. And she even comes with her own tiny accessories — her own cradle, and her own feeding table.

But even though Baby Cheerful Tearful is small, she's very much the same as her big sister in every other respect. She looks like Cheerful Tearful. She changes expressions like Cheerful Tearful. She laughs like Cheerful Tearful. She cries real tears like Cheerful Tearful.

And best of all, she's going to sell like Cheerful Tearful. And then some.

Baby Cheerful Tearful. She may be pretty small, but she's bound to grow on you.

The famous Chris-Craft planked hull in a 30' six-sleeper under $11,000?

This is the 30-ft. Crusader. And the philippine mahogany-planked hull is the same construction you'll find on the 65' Constellation. "Chris-Craft Grade" philippine mahogany, white oak, and flat-grain fir are used for the framing members. For the double bottom, marine-grade plywood is used inside, and philippine mahogany is used outside. Famous batten-seam construction makes a strong, lightweight, watertight hull, which, thanks to a bottom configuration that took years to develop, has few equals for speed and seaworthiness.

This Crusader is beautiful and comfortable inside. Beam is 10'-8", so there's plenty of room for extended cruising accommodations. There's a fully equipped galley. The dinette and lounge areas (both convertible to berths) are opposite each other, which makes entertaining convenient in the cabin. There's a private lavatory with a sink-and-vanity combination and linen storage beneath it. For more storage, there are drawers and shelves in the galley, the dinette, lounge, and the forward vee-berth area. And full carpeting, color-matched fabrics, and lustrous natural-wood finishes make the cabin luxurious and inviting.

Power choices include single 210-hp, or twin 185's or 210's, and the starting price is only $10,495, f.o.b. factory. Visit your Chris-Craft Cavalier dealer now for more data on this tremendous 6-sleeper buy. For the 1967 Crusader catalog, write Chris-Craft Crusader, Cavalier Division, Chris-Craft Corporation, Pompano Beach, Florida 33061.

Specify B.F. Goodrich Cutless bearings. Trojan Boat Company does.

This is the 42' Sea Voyager Motor Yacht, one of the finest pleasure craft afloat today. Like all of Trojan's inboard models, it is equipped with B.F. Goodrich Cutless bearings.

Why BFG? Because Cutless rubber bearings keep a film of water constantly between bearing faces and shaft. This exclusive Water Wedge design prevents heat build up and shaft scoring, keeps grit and dirt from grinding into the shaft. That's why BFG Cutless bearings last far longer than conventional rubber-lined bearings. Why they're original equipment on virtually every major make of boat.

Make sure BFG bearings are on your new boat. And use them for replacement too—it's easy and inexpensive. See your marine dealer or write Lucian Q. Moffitt, Inc., National and International Distributors, P.O. Box 1415, Akron, Ohio 44309.

STRUCTO FIRE TRUCK

FREEPORT, ILL.—Among innovations in the line of the Structo Division of King-Seecley Thermos Co. is a snorkel firetruck which operates hydraulically, propelling a 20-foot stream of water with aid of a hose adapter. The new addition to Structo's Pow-R-R-R fleet features a high style turbine cab design like the rest of the line.

The truck is all steel with a simulated dome light and a basket swivel for the snorkel. Retail is about $13.95.

A new auto transport has the Pow-R R-R sound attachment which simulates the hum of a giant motor without using batteries. All models in this line feature the attachment.

The auto transport has an open-girder construction as well as a turbine cab. Loading ramps adjust to two positions for loading the three late model cars which come with the truck.

Other new additions to the Pow-R-R-R fleet with turbine cabs include a hydraulic sanitation truck and a new tractor trailer truck with 375 cubic inches of cargo space in the trailer. The trailer has a fifth wheel like the big ones.

Structo's Live Action Fleet features a new hydraulic snorkel utility truck model like the ones used by the power companies. The truck has a swivel basket that rises hydraulically.

A lever action sanitation truck with a lift bucket automatically opens the receiving door. Other trucks in the Live Action Fleet include a new 10 wheeler with a turbine cab. A new version of the Timber Toter also has a high style turbine cab.

In the Kompak line a mobile merry-go-round has been added. The carousel rotates as the truck is moved and rings a bell. Hand painted animals revolve around a reflecting pole in the center.

The Kenya Karryall has realistic cages with lifting doors so that hand painted wild animals can be removed. Each cage will come off the truck and the truck itself can also be used as a flatbed hauler. A third additon to the Kompak line is a lever operated sanitation truck.

Structo is planning to back its 1967 line with record consumer advertising in Life, Look, Readers Digest and the Saturday Evening Post.

Emenee Unveils New Peanut Butter-Making Toy Device

Emenee Industries is offering a peanut butter-making device, a crayon-making toy and a candy-making toy as part of its new line for 1967.

The peanut butter-maker, called Emenee Mr. Peanut, works by cranking a handle which grinds peanuts into peanut butter. According to Herbert Merin, president of Emenee, his firm and Standard Brands will promote the new toy with nation-wide advertising programs.

Emenee's new crayon-making toy, called Crayon Factory, enables youngsters to produce dozens of crayons at home in a wide range of colors. Raw materials, a safe, highbulb heater, molds, crayon tubes and a color wheel which provides precise formulas for reproducing hundreds of colors are all included.

Also new is the Super Candy Maker, which can turn out lollipops, hard candies and fudge, jelly-filled chocolates, chocolate bars and bubble gum.

The firm also introduced a Magic two-in-one Play House, which allows a child to change the decor and furnishings of the house. The house, which comes with removable roof and 27 pieces of plastic furniture, is a clear-plastic shell complete with inner clear-plastic rooms and floor.

Colored sectional inserts also enable a child to change wall color schemes, wallpaper, carpeting and even change the house from a brick exterior to clapboard exterior.

In the toy musical instrument area, the company expanded its line of drums with the introduction of a "Swing & Play" Tambourine, now popular with rock 'n' roll groups, plus a slim line, tunable bass drum with foot pedal, tom-toms, cymbal and wood block, complete with professional chrome stand. Professional-type foot-pedal-operated twin cymbals round out the new items in Emenee's Big Bash drum line. When combined with the company's snare drum set, the ensemble is comparable in sound and appearance to drum sets used in professional rock 'n' roll groups.

Other major toy musical instruments include Emenee's Polychord Electric Piano Organs in 12 chord, two and three octave models; several smaller organs, accordions, trumpets, ukuleles, clarinets, saxophones, betons and rhythm sets.

In the nonmusical area, Emenee's Chocolate Factory, Thermo/Craft Workshop which produces planes, boats and cars from molded plastic, a collection of cartoon Trace-A-Graphs featuring Dr. Do-little, Superman and Batman, round out the company's toy line.

Ertl Introduces 5 New Steerable Trucks as Part of Line for 1967

Five new steerable trucks are a part of the line of trucks, tractors, farm equipment and other toys currently being offered to the trade by The Ertl Company, Dyersville, Iowa.

According to Fred Ertl, Jr., the touch steering feature marks a first in successful application to toy trucks. The firm offers 1/18-scale models of trucks with die-cast aluminum bodies and steel component parts along with a driver figure in the cab and full plastic windows and interior. Ertl trucks also show two-toned grilles, plastic headlights, white sidewall tires, riveted axles and trademark decals.

In addition to the five steerable trucks all of the Ertl trucks were changed for the current year. Four new truck numbers were added as well as a Tractor-Loader-Backhoe and Bulldozer in the construction toy category.

In Ertl's farm line, a corn head was added to the Allis Chalmers Cleaner Combine. The company is also offering, new for 1967, a series of 1/32-scale model farm toys, available both bulk pack and carded.

The company presently has a 50,000 square-foot warehouse under construction which will bring overall space to 115,000 square feet. In the plant itself, a second electrostatic spray line has been installed and the finish assembly lines have been increased from two to four.

Ertl does its own die casting, some of its plastic molding, some stamping and all assembling and packaging.

New OneZ-TwoZ Counting Game Introduced by Colorforms

New toy items expanding the range of customer potential to youngsters from two to 22 years of age, and beyond, were introduced to retailers last month by Colorforms, Norwood, N.J.

For the very young, from two to four, there's a new Stick-Ons kit titled OneZ-TwoZ which is designed as an educational toy to help the child learn to count, and to understand the concept of numbers. Using the Colorforms plastic pieces which stick without sticking, numbers, their progression, and their quantitative meaning can be learned by repetition. Suggested retail price is $1.19.

The firm is also offering Canned Movies in three titles: Bozo the Clown, Tarzan and Snow White. Each movie can come packaged in a reusable metal can the size of a coffee can, complete with a wooden holder and 12 separate cartoon strips for $1.98. A fall television promotion is planned for the item with actual delivery on May 15.

Geared for older children, the firm also introduced In-Buttons, a boxed kit for making your own messages. It contains six different sized buttons in assorted colors with a complete set of printed letters with which to make any button "saying" desired. With the dowel that comes with each kit, the letters can be easily rubbed onto the button, and can be scrapped off quickly so that a new saying can be made. List is $1.98.

Two new Stick-Ons titles have also been issued by the firm. One is Popeye TV. The other is Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, which is timed for introduction prior to the re-release of the Walt Disney full-length feature cartoon in June. Suggested retail on each is $1.18.

is the proven formula that leads discriminating skippers to Huckins when they want the finest yachts. It is the ingredient which has built Huckins into the Symbol of Yachting Perfection.

"Imagineering" isn't just a fanciful word to attract your attention. It is real and live, as tangible as a fine Huckins. It's created when skilled marine engineering is combined with master craftsmanship to produce a functional, safe and luxurious yacht without peer. It's the extra care that goes into each Huckins to give it a distinctive personality that is found in no other yacht.

"Imagineering" is something you sense as soon as you step aboard a Huckins. It's something you feel in the responsiveness to your touch on the wheel. It's something that sends a Huckins cruising over the far-flung waters of the earth in a manner that is instantly definable, instantly recognizable.

If you want to leave the "ho hum" world behind, step up to Huckins "Imagineering". May we send you plans for your consideration? Write Huckins Yacht Corporation, P. O. Box 7068, Jacksonville, Florida, 32210.

HUFFMAN MFG.

DAYTON, OHIO—A racy addition to the Huffman Manufacturing Company's Huffly Dragster line is the low-profit Rail. The Rail has Huffly's exclusive Red and Supreme Cheater Slick tire and a T-bar stick shift which actuates from 3-5 forward driving speeds. Of the three new Rail models, two have multiple speeds.

There are nine models in the Huffy Dragster line for 1967, including the three Rails and the deluxe 3-speed Dragster which also comes in a girls model. All have been re-engineered to provide gearing comparable to that of larger middleweight bikes, according to the company.

For adult cycling, Huffman has five models of hand-built Huffly Carlton English light-weights: 10-speed bikes with touring equipment. They range from the Centurion in the 22½-inch frame with light alloy components throughout, to the Corsair model which comes in a 21½-inch or 22½-inch frame.

Also for adults, there are four Huffy Moulton models—the Stowaway, 4-speed, Speed Six and "S" Safari. The Moulton has a cushion or spring suspension system. Front suspension in the head tube cushions the upward movement by means of a 10-inch column of natural rubber in a helical steel spring. The rear fork pivots, exerting pressure against a natural rubber block between the main beam and the rear fork.

The Miss America III is a new addition to the Huffy Dragster line. The bike has a two-coat finish in Flamboyant Midnight Magenta, features a 3-speed rear hub with twist grip controls, bobbed chrome fenders and heavy duty rear wheel with white sidewall tires. A flowered wicker basket completes the ensemble.

For families, Huffman is introducing a new version of its tandem bike. The new tandem features a Lo-Lo frame, and quick-release clamps for easy saddle adjustment.

Huffy's continental lightweight line includes four 10-speed models, eight 3-speed models, and a pair of coaster brake lightweight.

the sealed unit. With the pot are Mystic coffee cups, four plastic cups half filled with liquid which will not pour out but makes for a lot of pretending.

Remember Cheerful Tearful? You ought to. Mattel introduced her in 1966, and she turned out to be one of the hottest dolls to come along in years.

Now Mattel has come up with an amazing miniature Cheerful Tearful.® She's called Baby Cheerful Tearful,® because she's only about a third the size of her big sister. And she even comes with her own tiny accessories — her own cradle, and her own feeding table.

But even though Baby Cheerful Tearful is small, she's very much the same as her big sister in every other respect.

She looks like Cheerful Tearful.

She changes expressions like Cheerful Tearful.

She laughs like Cheerful Tearful.

She cries real tears like Cheerful Tearful.

And best of all, she's going to sell like Cheerful Tearful And then some.

Baby Cheerful Tearful. She may be pretty small, but she's bound to grow on you.

Hallmark Acquires Springbok Co.

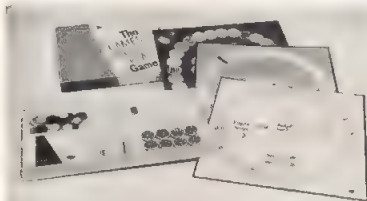

The sale of Springbok Editions, Inc., maker of quality jigsaw puzzles, to Hallmark Cards, Inc., Kansas City, was announced recently by Mrs. Katherine E. Lewin, Springbok president, and Donald J. Hall, president of the card firm.

It will be operated as a separate and wholly-owned subsidiary of the card firm. No major policy changes are planned, Mr. Hall said.

Other jigsaw puzzles include natural history subjects painted by leading naturalist painters. An educational text, written by a museum director or educator, accompanies each of these puzzles. Mrs. Lewin and her husband, who is vice-president, will continue in their executive capacities.

Coast To Coast Stores Set Fall-Winter Meetings for 1967

Coast To Coast Stores, Minneapolis, recently announced the dates of its fall-winter sales meetings for 1967, all of which will be held next month.

The meetings will take place July 2-3 at the Sheraton Motor Inn in Portland, Ore.; July 9-10 at the Leamington Hotel in Minneapolis; July 16-17 at the Northern Hotel in Billings, Mont.; July 16-17 at the Denver Hilton in Denver; July 23-24 at the Continental Hotel in Kansas City, and July 30-31 at the Pfister Hotel in Milwaukee.

Store owners from a 22-state area will gather at these regional meetings to review fall and winter merchandise lines, promotional tools, and sales aspects for the last five months of 1967.

Home office personnel and factory representatives will present a wide range of new merchandise, selling guidelines, and new product information to the store owners to enable them to better serve their customers.

The meetings will not only stress new merchandise lines, but also give store owners an opportunity to discuss their individual store operations. Service personnel experienced in accounting, finance and insurance will be on hand to talk to the store owners.

According to James Freer, advertising and sales promotion, these annual summer sessions are based on the previous use of the classroom format with the participants divided into small groups.

Here is the aristocrat of Pembroke's 1967 fleet . . . the Pembroke 37th Sport Sedan. As you can see she has character and grace. And functionally . . . she is unmatched by any express cruiser in her class. Why? The floor plan below gives a clue. You know as well as we do that the main cabin of a boat, nearly any boat, can't match your own living room. Face it . . . a boat is small. BUT MARK THIS WELL! The Pembroke 37th has the most nearly perfect interior design of any other pleasure boat we know. The main cabin, for example, is designed for flexibility. You can move around. You can move furniture. You can arrange and rearrange this or that. You can live in a Pembroke 37.

Then too, there's the 'ample storage' consideration . . . and the 'big galley' benefit . . . and the 'plenty of privacy' point. But we'd rather have you evaluate these features for yourself at one of our show rooms. We'll be pleased to get out pad, pencil and measuring stick because we know we can satisfy you.

Look below for the name of your closest dealer. Look for us, too at the New York Boat Show.

A 1/48 scale Apollo Spacecraft heads the list of new plastic model kits. The kit includes a command module, service module, launch escape system, lunar module, and Apollo-Saturn LM adapter section.

All the Apollo elements fit together and come apart to show how the real thing works. Besides the $\frac{1}{8}$ s scale, there will be a $\frac{3}{16}$ s scale version.

Second big new kit is the SST—supersonic transport. A detailed model of the forthcoming Boeing jet has variable sweep wings and a "droop-snoot"

To round out the space and speed line there will be an authentically detailed model kit of an astronaut complete with all his equipment. The model is approximately 12 inches high.

In the racing area, six new sets bring the total Revell line to 12, ranging in price from $30 to $100. The sets will accommodate both 1/24 and 1/32 scale cars, including Camaro, Ferrari Tipo 555, Mustang, Porsche RS-60, Lotus 23, and Chaparral.

Banked track, 90 and 180 degree turns give Revell's new sets high speed capability. More accessories have been added, including lap counters and switch-overs.

New model airplane kits include the Curtiss P-40E Flying Tiger, Messerschmitt Bf 109F, Bell UH-1D helicopter and Bell Huey Cobra Helicopter, all in 1/2 scale.

Of the 1967 model ships, models include the Nationalist Chinese

REVELL'S APOLLO

Frigate Tai Chao, Cruiser U.S.S. Pittsburgh, Aircraft Carrier U.S.S. Enterprise, Hospital Ship U.S.S. Repose, Battleship U.S.S. Arizona. German Cruiser Prinz Eugen and H.M.S. Ark Royal Aircraft Carrier with Tribal Class Destroyer. There will also be a three-foot sailing ship, the Pedro Nunes.

From the automotive world comes a 1967 De Luxe Volkswagen station wagon, a Studebaker "Miss Deal" Funny Car, along with a "Dodge Revellion" Funny Car, all in 1/25 scale.

Rounding out the line is a $\frac{1}{8}$ scale Honda Scrambler Motorbike.

In its annual model contest, Revell this year is giving away a full-scale, 19-foot Gemini capsule. Youngsters need only send their names and addresses on the end panels of any Revell kit

In a previous contest, Revell gave a nine year old boy his own F86 jet fighter, full size.

Structo is growing up this year

Growing up with nine new models to lead the line for 1967. These new models represent a massive tooling investment without price increases. Add them to the rest of the Structo line, and you've got a great thing going for you . . . great because they're not promotional toys that have to be discounted to the non-profit level. You get profit, your customer gets satisfaction.

Grown-up approach to advertising is directed to the major buying influence for toy trucks: parents . . . in the magazines that reach 68,301,000 adults. Life, Look, Saturday Evening Post and Reader's Digest. This represents a major investment on our part . . . to help you sell.

Put it all together and it means the hottest year yet for Structo trucks . . . it's a line to grow on.

Variety of Toymen Ready Snow White Products for Market

Snow White

MORE THAN 50 manufacturers are offering merchandise to tie-in with the nation-wide re-release, this month, of Walt Disney's first full-length animated cartoon in color, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

According to Jean Besterman of the Character Merchandising Division of Walt Disney Productions, Inc., more firms have become licensees for the re-release of this picture than any other Disney film. When "Snow White" was last seen by theatre audiences, in 1958, 17 firms produced merchandise for the retail counters. This time there will be more than 300 different items from which to choose, a substantial portion of them toy or toy-related items.

Nine manufacturers who participated in the 1958 Snow White promotion are licensees again. They are the Gund Mfg. Company (with seven stuffed felt and cotton dwarfs to retail at $1.29 each), the Jaymar Specialty Company (a series of puzzles depicting scenes from the movie), the Dexter Mfg. Company, the U.S. Time Corporation, Ben Cooper, Inc., the Dolly Toy Company, the National Leather Mfg. Company, the Whitman Publishing Company, and Disneyland Records.

In addition, a variety of Snow White items is being produced by Ameco Industries, Inc.; the Benay-Albee Novelty Company; J. Chein & Company, (teacups, Colorforms, (Stick-Ons cartoon kit and colored cartoon strips), Frankonia Products, Inc.; the Horsman Doll Company, the Ideal Toy Corporation, (vinyl luggage); James Industries, Inc., (Ex-pan-dees sponge toys); the Porter Chemical Company, (Spear eight-piece electric phonograph set); Louis Marx & Company, Inc., the Pressman Toy Corporation, Smith Enterprises, Inc., and Sawyer's, Inc.

Hassenfeld Brothers is introducing 14 new Snow White items, including pencil boxes and pouches from its Empire Pencil Company division; Yankee Homecraft is producing a series of wall plaque molding kits, and Whitman Publishing has produced special Snow White floor display stands to exhibit their 14 Snow White items. Enneson Imports, Inc., is introducing a line that consists of about 50 ceramic items.

A major TV promotion, using network commercials and local spots, will be backed by ads and editorial features in newspapers and consumer magazines as well as record promotions of the music in the film to support the movie.

National Brands, Clorox Bleach, Royal Gelatin, Wheat Honeys and Rice Honeys, in addition to the promotions that the toy firms will undertake, are mounting Snow White campaigns, according to Miss Besterman.

Louis, The Hecht Company, Washington, D. C., Greenwood Shopping Center, Indianapolis, Carson, Pirie, Scott & Company, Chicago, and Sears, Roebuck & Company, Natick, Mass.
